RESULT OF ELECTION IN CITY.

Returns rather incomplete but able to give reliable estimates.

There was general interest in election news yesterday. The EAGLE's bulletin was watched all day by a large crowd and at times the crowd found something causing some to feel sad and some rejoice. As a rule the fellows rejoicing took more interest than the others and remained longer, thus having a majority most of the time. The betting showed up a little during the day on state and county tickets.

In county affairs the most interest was centered in the fight for district clerk. Luling had left the city with over 900 majority but as the townships came in this failed away. The farther back the township the heavier the majority for Luling. By 3 p. m. the county majority for Ayres had reached over 1,100 and Atton and Erie had not been heard from, but there was no longer any doubt. It seems quite certain that Ayres has about 400 majority. In Atton, Erie, Gypsum and West Park only partial returns have been secured. The judges hold onto the ballots very closely, but it is supposed they will be in by Friday, when the official count will be made.

W. S. Morris is off the anxious seat, having over Atwood, the Alliance candidate, 600 plurality, and Sam Amidon got the red flag at the first quarter, coming out 1,900 behind.

Probate judge, Buckner, has a majority of about 350 according to his count and estimate, but Dixon keeps watching the poll books to see that nothing happens. Pence has rustled personally and got complete returns concerning himself. The vote for him was 2,450; Baily, Alliance, 2,888; Pence, Democrat, 2,498. This gives Pence a majority of 438.

In the first commissioner district Haden, the Alliance candidate, is elected over Duncan, Democrat, by 98. Douglas goes back to the house of representatives by 627 over Mathewson and Hurt is elected in the west district and Ruble is the east district. Joe Henly was second by about 80 votes. In the ballots of the First and Second wards there were 88 Republican tickets voted with the name of Douglas and it is quite evident it was intended to vote for Henly, but the mistake due to a bad blunder from some one.

In the city Hallwell received 2,615, Simpson 2,336, giving a majority of 222 for Hallwell. The indications from the country are to the effect that Hallwell will be defeated in the county by 800 votes.

In the city Governor Humphrey has 921 votes, Robinson 3,110 and Wilts 491. The returns as made from the townships give Humphrey 1,565; Robinson 6,565, and Wilts 1,522.

In the report of the city vote by precincts as made yesterday there were a few errors due mainly to the rush and two precincts had not come in in time for the last edition. The complete returns for the city are as follows:
